ST. LOUIS, MO., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1902.

CHIEF SWINGLEY DEPOSES TWO OF HIS ASSISTANTS.

John Barry Is Discharged and Benjamin Fath Requested to Tender His Resignation.

BARRY APPEALS TO THE MAYOR.

He Will Resist the Chief's Orders, Although Swingley Says He Will Not Reinstate Him.

BOTH FIREMEN DEMOCRATS.

Political Stir-Both Are Old Employes of Department and Point to Good Records.

Bwingley yesterday discharged from the Fire Department Assistant Chief John F. Barry of No. 3416 Cook avenue, and accepted the resignation of Assistant Chief Benjamin Fath of No. 2400 McNair avenue. Both men had been in the service for more than a quarter of a century. Barry was located at Engine Co. No. 21's house and Fath at No. 1 Engine House. All indications are that Mr. Swingley desired to keep the facts secret as long as possible. Fath's resignation was requested by the Chief. The discharge of Mr. Barry has aroused the interest of Vice President Boyce of the City Council, Councilman

CHIEF SWINGLEY.

ehan, Councilman Newell, License Col lector Whyte and other Democratic city officials, who state that, in their opinion, Chief Swingley was actuated more or less by political motives. This Mr. Swingley Barry Appeals to Mayor. At any rate, Mr. Barry appealed the case to Mayor Wells, and his discharge promises to cause a political stir.

For some time friends of Assistant Chief Barry have been urging his promotion, when the proper time should arrive, to the position of Chief. Chief Swingley admits that statements concerning Mr. Barry's ambitions had been reported to him.

Messrs, Barry and Fath are Democrats.

Messrs. Barry and Fath are Democrats, Members of the Fire Department say that only one Democratic Assistant Chief remains in service, namely, Andrew Coughlin, who has also been a long time with the Thinks Barry Was Careless.

"All I have to say about Mr. Barry's discharge is that I acted for the good of the service," said Chief Swingley last night. "I have nothing else to say about it."

When pressed to state the cause, Chief might. "I have nothing else to say about it."

When pressed to state the cause, Chief Swingley said that Mr. Barry had been careless of late. Asked to be specific in the charge he said that the Assistant Chief did not move his engines, when the proper alarm was rung, on the day of the Transit power-house fire.

"Barry was in the engine-house," he said, "when the first alarm came in. He went home to supper. His boy was very sick, and so as not to disturb the invalid the alarm bell was muffied; consequently he did not hear the third alarm, and the engines were moved up twelve minutes late. I have been obliged recently, on other occasions, to warn him to be more attentive to work."

Barry Replies to Charges.

Barry Replies to Charges. The discharged official's account of the movement of the engines differ from that given by the Chief. "I left the engine-house at 7:30." Mr. Barry said, "to go home for supper, but I did not leave until Assistant Chief Rucker returned from his meal.

till Assistant Chief Rucker returned from his meal.

My boy has been sick with typhoid fever for eight weeks, and for three weeks he has been at the point of death, After I had been home awhile I telephoned and asked if the second alarm had been turned in. I was told that the third alarm had been rung. Then I heard Assistant Chief Rucker instructing Assistant Chief I was interested to make the insurance companie, but I do not intend to be made the searce of any such trouble.

"Chief Swingley sent for me before breakfast this morning and told me to be at his office in the City Hall at 9 o'clock. I responded promptly. The Chief handed me a plece of paper and told me to sign it. It was a resignation, and, of course, I refused to sign it. Then he produced the discharge, and said that document would be effective if I wouldn't sign the resignation.

"This is brutal," I said. The Chief replied that no power on earth could put me mack into my place. I went from the Chief's Office to Mayor Wells and asked for a trial. I told the Chief that I stand on my record, and so I do."

"Says Fath's Health Is Bad.

For half an hour last night Chief Swing-ley spoke of Barry's discharge, but said nothing about Mr. Fath's resignation. Later on, when questioned about it, he said that Mr. Fath had resigned. After further pressing the Chief said that he had sug-gested to Mr. Fath the advisability of ten-dering his resignation.

CHARGES RICE HEIRS WITH A CONSPIRACY.

St. Louis Brother-in-Law, Says He Was Offered $250,000.

Relative Declares That Money Will Not Be Spared in Defending the Man Accused of Murder.

JOHN T, MILLIKEN'S FAITH IN PATRICK.

"Albert Patrick is an innocent man . and the victim of a conspiracy to . steal the Rice estate. "Six heirs of the 1896 will offered .

Their Removal Likely to Cause a

Political Stir—Roth Are Old

Their Removal Likely to Cause a

Political Stir—Roth Are Old

• "Patrick shall be vindicated and I • will spend the money to see that jus tice is done.

"I will give $5,000 to charity if any statement I have made is not true. • Statement I have made is not true.

It is not money that we want, but the vindication."—Statement of John T. Milliken, the St. Louis chemist, who the statement of John T. Milliken, the St. Louis chemist, who the statement of John T. Milliken, the St. Louis chemist, who the statement I have made is not true.

It is not money that we want, but the statement of John T. Milliken, the St. Louis chemist, who the statement I have made is not true. · yer charged with the murder of Milnaire Rice in New York City.

> John T. Milliken, a wealthy chemist of this city and a brother-in-law of Albert T. Patrick, now on trial in New York for the murder of Millionaire William Marsh Rice in that city nine months ago, and the friend who is supplying the money for the lawyer's defense, arrived in St. Louis yesterday and gave to The Republic an outline of the defense to be relied upon in the celebrated case. Mr. Milliken claims that Patrick is the victim of a conspiracy, and that there is not one bit of evidence against the acvalet, Jones, and that is not corroborated. "A short time before the trial," said Mr.

> Milliken yesterday, "I was called to New York, and was offered $50,000 by the six heirs under the will of 1896, to have Patrick compromise the will of 1900. Upon my re-cusal the amount was raised to $250,000. "It is not money we want, but vindica-tion, and it is for this purpose that I am defraying the expenses of the trial now in progress. It is quite evident that it is not

Patrick's blood that is wanted, but Mr

"Mr. Rice was a heavy loser by the Gal-"Mr. Rice was a heavy loser by the Galveston, Tex., storm, more than a million dollars' worth of his property being swept away. This, coupled with the burning of one of his oil mills at Houston, Tex., eight days later, entailing a loss of nearly half a million dollars, caused him to fret and worry, which affected his heart. His doctor warned him against this condition, and requested the valet to watch him very closely, as he was liable to die at any moment.

"The day before he died, he drew his "The day before he died, he drew his checks aggregating $250,000 in favor of Patrick to settle with the heir of his wife's will. These checks were sent to Mr. Pat-mpon the advice of counsel. Patrick sent the four checks to the different banks for certification. The Fifth Avenue Trust Company certified two of these checks and stands ready to pay them at the present time. The other two would have been ceran irregularity made in drawing them er a week or so Patrick and the valet were arrested, charged with forgery. Patrick was not indicted, although the statutes of New York require an indictment urnished bond for Patrick, but he was re arrested on the murder charge before he left the Courthouse upon an affidavit made soned Rice with mercury. When this charge was shown to be false the District Attorney had Jones make two other sworn atements, one of which was that Patrick ad chloroformed Rice, and the other that Patrick had not chloroformed him but that he did it himself under Patrick's instigaboarding-house in New York during the past nine months, visiting places of amuseent and having anything that he desired all of which has cost the State of New York more than $1,000 a month, notwithstanding

"This is a plain statement of facts, and I will give $5,000 to any charitable institu-tion in the country if anybody can controvert any statement I have made.

NINE JURORS IN PATRICK CASE. Accused in Good Humor and Says

New York, Jan. 21.-Four more jurors

He Does Not Fear Outcome. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

were obtained to-day before Recorder Goff in the Court of General Sessions on the trial of Albert T. Patrick for the murder of William Marsh Rice. As a result of two days work there are in all nine jurors. Mr. Turner is a veteran of the Chicago bar, who has been retained by J. T. Milli-ken of St. Louis, to assist Cantwell and Moore and Fred B. House, who have charge of the defense. Mr. Milliken came forward to offer $10,000 cash bail when forward to offer $10,000 cash bail when Patrick was under indictment only for forgery, and when the charge of murder was made he said he would assume responsibility for all the legal expenses, declaring that he would spend all that was necessary. Patrick was in even better humor than on the first day he appeared in court. He expressed great satisfaction with the progress made, declared that he liked the appearance and manner of each juror and that he had no fear of the outcome. His interest in the case seemed no keener than that he had no fear of the outcome. His interest in the case seemed no keener than that of the lawyers who are defending him, and his face was radiant with smiles during their frequent consultations. While he is not his own attorney, he makes an admirable counsel for himself, suggesting the line of questions to be put to different witnesses.

witnesses.

The jury, so far as it has been completed, consists of James Machell, Frank P. Bill-meyer, George H. Carpenter, Richard Murphy, Henry Mason, John D. Campbell, Henry Budelman, Lawrence F. Abbott, editor, and son of the Reverend Lyman Abbott, and Edward S. Pringle, cashler and bott, and Edward S. Pringle, cashler and okkeeper, No. 416 Broadway

NORTON ORDERED TO VACATE. Kansas G. A. R. Committee Sustains Charges Made. Topeka, Kas., Jan. 21.—The Executive Committee of the Kansas G. A. R. to-night ordered Martin Norton, the depart-ment commander, to vacate his office at investigating charges that had been pre-ferred against Norton, and sustained them in every particular.

CITIES ARE GUARDING | TESTIMONY BEGUN

Bring More Troops to Colon and Panama.

Accomplished His Purpose, Which Was to Thwart the Government's Plans.

SPECIAL BY CABLE. Colon, Colombia, Jan. 21.—The Colombian warship General Penzon has gone to Savaniila to get more troops. Everything is road and at Panama. Officials of Colon are engaged in placing the town in a good state of defense, in case the insurgents decide to attack it Guards are stationed at Mount Hope, where trains are stopped and searched. Many suspects were arrested last night.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for yesterday's disaster to the Gov From the former the revolu ernment. tionists heard of the plans of the Government. The Lautaro circulating pump was out of order and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla.

Garcia Succeeds Alban. General Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the dis-trict, in succession to General Alban. Senor Ariona is the Civil Governor.

The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of Government troops there. The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Lianos, eight miles from Papama.

The Government has issued a decree conferring honors upon General Carlos Alban, who was killed in yesterday's fighting in the bay. General Herrera, the revolutionary lead-er, informed Captain Mend of the United States cruiser Philadelphia, that he came here to prevent the Colombian Government using the steamer Lautaro against the Lib-erals. He had accomplished this and therefore retired. The revolutionists had seventeen wounder in yesterday's engagement. The number of killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the Government forces five men were killed and four wounded.

ENGINEER'S BRAVERY SAVED NOTABLE PARTY.

Lord and Lady Gordon-Lennox, E. O. Wolcott and Morton Frewen Escape in a Wreck.

Gunnison, Colo., Jan. 21.-Lord and Lady Gordon-Lennox, former United States Sen-atif E. O. Wolcott, and Moreton Frewen, the distinguished English economist, were saved from serious injury and possible death to-day by the bravery of Engineer Rooney. Their special train, consisting of two coaches, was derailed about one mile son on the Denver an The engineer stuck by his post, reversed the engine and put on the brakes. The entire train was derailed and bumped along the ties and open ground for about 300 yards, but the engineer's action prevented a serious wreck. All of them walked into Gunnison and registered at a hotel, where a few personal friends of the Senator met Within two hours all damage to the oaches had been repaired, a fresh engine provided and the party again started on received several pretty souvenirs and a more substantial remembrance of the ex-

MAY BE CHARGED WITH HERESY

University Trustees Discuss Utterances of Professor Pearson. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 21.-The first steps looking to the investigation of the heresy charges against Professor Charles W. Pearson of Northwestern University, who has openly expressed his disbellef in the Bible miracles, have been taken by the univeropenly expressed his disbelief in the Bible miracles, have been taken by the university trustees.

The decision to take the matter up was reached last night at Evanston by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trusices, in secret session, but it was not until the full board met in quarterly session this afternoon that the decision to begin the "heresy hunt" was made public.

At the secret meeting nine members of the Executive Committee were present. Although not called for that purpose, discussion of the recently published utterances of Doctor Pearson on the topic of Bible miracles could not be suppressed, though it developed that Doctor Pearson had warm friends on the committee, who defended him with spirit.

After a heated debate, the resolution providing for an investigation, preliminary to a formal decision in the case, was offered. The resolution provided that the chairman appont a special committee of three to prepare a report and recommendations in the matter. The resolution was adopted and Acting President Bonright, the Reverend R. D. Shepard and M. H. Wilson were named as the committee.

TWO ST. LOUISANS GUESTS. J. W. Reynolds and Miss Julia

Knapp Attend Yale Promenade. REPUBLIC SPECIAL, New Haven, Conn., Jan. 21.—Nearly 600

couples joined in the promenade as guests of the junior class at Yale this evening. The affair was the climax of the social week and was held in the Second Regiment Ar-mory, which had been transformed into a hallroom.

ballroom.

Shortly after 9 o'clock the members of the Junior Promenade Committee, with their partners, started the grand march, led by Mr. Chauncey J. Hamim, floor manager, of Buffalo, with Miss Emily Gray of Buffalo.

Mr. James W. Reynolds of St. Louis escorted Miss Julia Knapp of St. Louis.

STONE RANSOM MONEY IS SENT. Forwarded to Those Who Negotiated With the Brigands. Constantinople, Jan. 21.-It was ascer tained to-day that the money subscribed for the ransom of Miss Ellen M. Stone and Mme. Tsilka has been forwarded to the Americans who have been negotiating with the brigands for the release of the two women. The whereabouts of the negotia-tors is withbeld by the officials here.

CAPTAIN SHOT FROM AMBUSH. Seventh Infantryman Killed in Eastern Samar.

Manils, Jan. 21.-Captain J. M. Hartshorn, Jr., of the Seventh Infantry, was shot from ambush and killed January 2 in the eastern part of the Island of Samar. Captain Hartshorn was recently transferred from the Ninth to the Seventh Infantry.

AGAINST ATTACKS. IN RICHARDSON CASE. TO GO ON THE STAGE.

John T. Milliken, Lawyer Patrick's Government Warship Hurries to Business Partner of Murdered Man She Was Formerly Miss Belle Mul-Recalls Incidents Preceding the Tragedy.

Revolutionary General Says He Buggy Tracks Observed Near the Will Join the Otis Skinner Com-House Will Play a Part in the Case-Eleven Jurors Are Farmers.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Plattsburg, Mo., Jan. 21 .- The case of the State of Missouri against Mrs. Addie B. 10:30 o'clock. quiet along the line of the Panama Rail-

The courtroom was crowded long before good seats, and many ladies were present. At 11:15 Mrs. Richardson, accompanied by peared in the courtroom and took her scat. There were twenty-two in the party, and behind them came a large number of

ELEVEN JURORS FARMERS AND ONE A MAIL CLERK.

Judge R. E. Culver announced the turors Kennedy, James Teaney, J. L. Hulse, J. B. Attrill, L. H. Beard, I. N. Jones, Alex. Shepherd, M. J. Hickey, D. G. Collier, W. R. Wright, H. H. Kelley, G. P. Young. They are middle-aged and are farmers or stock raisers, with the exception of M. J. Hickey, who is a railway mail clerk.

Prosecuting Attorney Lloyd Booher of Saannah read the indictment, and his father, . F. Booher, made the opening statement for the prosecution. He spoke of the manner in which the case had been brought to this county, and the enormity of the crime, He dwelt upon the preparations that had been made in the Richardson home for the celebration of the Christmas festivities, which were so suddenly transformed into a scene of mourning. He detailed the doings of Richardson on that fatal evening when he and George Crowley left the home together, and he showed their course as they started to town. His review of the doings of Richardson that evening was very detailed. He gave a resume of the testimony which would be introduced by the prosecution.

LITTLE EMOTION-SHOWN

BY MRS. RICHARDSON. During the progress of his talk Mrs.

Richardson sat perfectly erect and displayed little emotion. Mr. Booher intimated that an attack upon her character might follow, and her hands twitched once or twice, but she quickly regained her com

The defense reserved the making of any statement until after the close of the State's RICHARDSON'S PARTNER THE FIRST WITNESS. George Crowley was the first witness called to the stand by the State. He was the young man who took supper at the Richardson home on that fatal evening, and who was a partner with him in business. Mrs. Richardson from the store; they and talked for some time before supper in the bedroom and sitting-room, which was later to play such a conspicuous part in this case; that he and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson had talked about the Christmas prepara-tions, and that about 7:30 p. m., after the children had gone over to the church to a Christmas tree exercise he and Richdson went to town together; that when they left Mrs. Richardson told them that go with them. She was at this time comb-ing her hair. He said he could not wait, as he had some business downtown and had to meet his family and would Richardsons at the Opera-house at 9 o'clock. He left Richardson after they got down-town, and he had gone into a jewelry store. in the evening and saw Stewart Fife, now under arrest, at the time he was in there.

Upon cross-examination, he admitted that quainted with all his troubles. He identified a plat of the Richardson home. As to Mr. and Mrs. Richardson he stated their relaned to be very affectionate. TWO VEHICLE TRACKS

IN FRONT OF HOUSE.

Under his cross-examination, Crowley admitted that in the course of the search for clews, which he and others made around the Richardson home, they found two vehicle tracks in front of the house, one made by the delivery wagon and the other by a buggy.

M. E. Brown of Savannah was the next witness called. He was in the employ of the Fife-Richardson Mercantile Company at the time of the murder. He answered the telephone at the store when Mrs. Richardson called and asked for Mr. Richardson. He told her that he was not there and she left some message with him to be delivered when Mr. Richardson got in.

It was Mr. Brown also whom Richardon told he was going across the street for moment when he left the store that even

Mrs. W. N. Kerr was next called to the street from the Richardson home and it was from her house that Mrs. Richardson telephoned to the store on both occasions. On the first attempt Mrs. Richardson did not find her husband and on the second she heard her tell him that she had been neary downtown and told him to come home SOUND OF A BUGGY

FOLLOWED REVOLVER SHOT. Shortly after this Richardson called up and asked if his wife was still there. About twenty minutes later she heard a sound similar to the firing of a shot, followed shortly by the sounds of a buggy going by the house. In a few minutes Mrs. Richardon was again at her door, asking Mrs. Kerr to let her in quick.

When she got in she exclaimed; "Frank's shot; he's dead." Mrs. Kerr at first tried to compose her as best she could, and then called up the store and told them to send some one up to the Richardson home; that something had happened. She then went over to the house and confirmed Mrs. Richardson's statement. When she arrived she found him lying in the sitting-room. As far as she was able to determine he was lying in a perfectly natural position, as if he had just conversation with the detendant in which Mrs. Richardson told the story of the killing. As she repeated it it was:

Upon cross-examination she repeated

"I had finished decorating the Christmas tree and had dressed to go to the entertainment when I heard a buggy and then heard steps upon the walk and in the house. I jumped up and turned down the light, and it went out. I intended to say 'Boo' to him when he entered, but just then I heard Frank say: 'Has it come to then I heard Frank say: 'Has it come to this?' or something of that kind, and then came that awful noise, and then he fell."
Other witnesses were examined as to the location of premises and the condition in which the body was found. Richardson's body, they said, was lying in the sitting-room with his head in the hall, Mrs. Richardson stating that she had dragged the foody into the room.

MRS. A. R. DELMONT

hall of St. Louis and Wellknown Socially.

WANTS PRISONER VINDICATED. GARCIA SUCCEEDS GEN. ALBAN. ACCUSED SEEMED UNAFFECTED HOPES TO RECOUP FORTUNE.

pany-Romantic Circumstances Surrounded Her Wedding Here Six Years Ago.

Mrs. Albert Royal Delmont, who prior to her marriage was Miss Belle Mulhall of St. Louis, is about to go on the stage Richardson was called this morning at She has left Chicago, where, with her husband, she has lived the last five years, and gone to New York to enter the company this hour with people anxious to secure of Otis Skinner, with which, it is stated she will take one of the leading parts.

Mrs. Delmont is well known in St. Louis her attorneys, her family and relatives, ap- her native city, and in which she has many relatives and friends. As Miss Mulhall, she was admittedly one of the most beautiful and attractive young women whom St Louis society had known in many seasons When quite a young girl she evinced talent and a liking for acting, and it was though by her friends that but for her marriage selected for the case as follows: Michael she would have entered the dramatic pro fession long before now. The advices which bring the news of her going on the stage intimate that lately Mr. Delmont, who is a grain broker, has lost measure it was to enable her husband to recoup, and, if possible, ald him in his effort to do so, that Mrs. Delmont concluded to adopt a theatrical career. Several years' hard work by husband and wife, she thought, would serve to restore the fortunes of the house.

Fearing that the present emergency might arise. Mrs. Delmont has been prepar-ing herself for it the last two years by hard study and reading. She possesses indomitable energy and considerable natural dramatic talent, which, combined with her beauty, causes her friends to predict a bril-liant future for her in the calling she has Romantic Marriage.

The present step of Mrs. Delmont recalls the romantic circumstances which surrounded her marriage, which took place in St. Louis about six years ago. The marriage attracted much notice, both because of the youth and prominence of the bride and the eccentricities of her husband. Though the wedding itself was a quiet affair, considerable space was given it in all the local papers, and it was widely discussed in social circles.

cussed in social circles.

Albert R. Delmont came to St. Louis early in 1895. From the first day of his arrival he began to make his presence felt in both social and business circles, and before he had lived here half a year he became known as the Monte Cristo of St. Louis. He possessed the art of organizing and promoting business schemes. He was lavish in his expenditures and was able to lay out his money so as to make the greatest possible showing. The Delmont suppers, theater parties, excursions, and, in fact, all varieties of entertainments, became proverbial for their lavishness and came proverbial for their lavishness and elegance. To his friends he presented gifts sociate in a business transaction he presented an insurance policy for $50,000 on his

While mowing this swath in the social world Mr. Delmont was not less active in business circles. He became famous for the size and recklessness of his deals on 'change, and was thought to be interested in numerous business enterprises through-out the country. His splendid address won confidence everywhere, and he was instru nental in interesting St. Louisans in cer-

Fell in Love With Picture. When in the height of his prosperity here Mr. Delmont became acquainted with Miss Belle Mulhall, who was then 18 years old. The manner of their meeting was romantic. Miss Mulhall was acquainted with J. Wilton Cunningham, the artist, who was an rdent admirer of her classic style of beauty. The artist was engaged to paint a picture in the Planters Hotel, and gained the young girl's consent to allow him to paint her as one of the central figures.

Mr. Delmont saw the completed picture and expressed great admiration of the figure for which Miss Mulhall had sat. A companion told him that he understood some St. Louis girl had posed for that picture. On the spot Mr. Delmont desible, marry her. He left no stone turned until he did meet Miss Mulhall, and at once commenced his suit.

In his courtship Mr. Delmont carried out ness affairs. He showered presents on the girl of his choice and gave endless enter-tainments in her honor. In the end he suceeded in gaining her consent to become his For a wedding present Mr. Del gave his wife an insurance policy on his

Shortly after the marriage Mr. Deln discontinued his business here and with his young wife he left the city. After traveling around the country for a time the couple located in Chicago, where they have lived until recently.

DELMONT WILL NOT OBJECT. Broker Satisfied His Wife Can Succeed on the Stage.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 21.-Albert R. Delmont. whose wife, formerly Miss Mulhall, is go-ing on the stage, has lived at No. 3634 Michigan avenue, this city, and while not in great style, he has kept up a respectabie establishment. He opened offices at No. 269 Dearborn street in the Boylston building. On the windows and doors of his suite he had his name, "The Stock Investment and Trading Company," painted. He had wires with Albert R. Jones & Co., commission merchants. He succeeded in making fair money until A. R. Jones & Co. were expelled from the Chicago Board of Trade. This cut Delmont off from the markets and he gave up his house on Michigan avenue and moved with his wife to the Great Northern Hotel. There he occupies a room while his wife is in New York. He says that he does not propose to stand in the way of his wife when she has a bent for the stage.

ter every afternoon and every evening, and she enjoyed it thoroughly. She has always she enjoyed it thoroughly. She has always had the same inclination for the stage, and she has the ability without a doubt. I would not oppose her when I know what she feels is within her. She does not have to hurry on the stage to get board money and will not take a place unless it is a good one. I have lost all my money, but I can make enough to take care of my wife vet."

ars. Demont has great beauty. She has received encouragement from many artists. She has studied under Mrs. Milward Adams and gained the unstinted praise of that teacher. She was recently offered a position as understudy for the part of Francesca da Rimini in the Otis Skinner company, but refused, because she was requested to pose when not assuming the role of the leading lady. She decided that her destiny was to be tivated St. Louis in the nineties, she gave up her ambition for a time. When reverses came she again reverted to her youthful ideas, and at last is about to enter the Claim, Eldorado, Yielding $1 to $5 Per Pan.

MRS. ALBERT ROYAL DELMONT SOON WILL GO ON THE STAGE.

MRS. ALBERT ROYAL DELMONT, Who was Miss Belle Mulhall of St. Louis.

-IN-

7:14 AND SETS THIS EVENING AT 5:09.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For St. Louis and Vicinity-Fair weather, with stationary tempera-

Thursday.

Western Texas — Partly cloudy

2. Tragic Sequel to Stormy Election Con-

Nineteenth Lady Manager Appointed.

Woman's Memorial to Be a Building.

World's Fair Will Not Have Peristyle

Vandiver Against Military Barracks.

South Side Stirred Over Social Evil.

. How the Public Can Beautify the City.

. Charges Rice Heirs With a Conspiracy.

Germany Disclaims Peace Proposals.

Bishop Free to Act in Parish Matters.

Gov. Taft Declares Outlook Hopeful. Social Gossip.

New Oklahoma Statehood Bill

St. Louisans Were Active.

Expires at His Desk.

Real Estate Transfers.

River Brevities.

Missing Cashier Seen in Texas.

Republic "Want" Advertisements.

Birth, Marriage and Death Records.

1. Rooms for Rent and Real Estate Ads.

14. Will Get Message in Midocean.
Probing Charges Against Metcair.
Irrigation Scheme Opposed by Sibley.
Visitors at St. Louis Hotels.

12. Summary of the St. Louis Markets.

All Grains Gained at Chicago.

Local Stocks in Good Demand.

6. Rough Riders Best at New Orleans

Joe Cannon Showing His Hand,

4. Pleads Gullty to Murder Charge.

Neighborhood News.

Pugilistic Gossip.

Busines: ... n's League Election.

Wednesday and Thursday.

to the pan on Good Pasture Creek.

GOLD IN KLONDIKE.

longed-for life.

MORE RICH FINDS OF

found in New York, and went there two TO ORPHAN ASYLUM weeks ago. Just what her arrangements thus far are she has not announced. She says that she has one aim, and when she gets that she will be a winner. Her hus-band and her friends have great faith in Instead Policeman Took Youth her ability. She has not decided on a the-atrical career in haste, but has been con-Who Rran Away From Home sidering such a life for a long time. Her mother was somewhat opposed to it, and when she met the princely broker who capto Four Courts.

WANTED DIRECTION

"Say, Mr. Officer, will you take me to an orphan asylum?" asked Guy Nightlinger, 14 years old, who ran away from his home at Marsifull, Ill., several days ago, addressing a policeman yesterday.
"Why, certainly," the officer replied, and he escorted the lad to the Four Courts, where he is now a prisoner in the detention he ran away from home, Nightlinger said: "Any way, I was tired of life on a farm.

When my parents died I was given to Buel

-By a Republic Photographer. GUY NIGHTLINGER, Who ran away from Marshall, Ill., and asked a St. Louis policeman to take him to an orphans' asylum.

Missouri, Illinois, Arkansas and Eastern Texas-Fair Wednesday and farm, but when he accused me of stealing his chickens and seiling them it was more than I could stand. "I started out without a cent last Saturday. I rode on freight trains part of the shall. I did not mind hard work on the 1 Prince Henry May Yet Come to St. way, and walked a portion of the distance between Marshall and St. Louis. "I tried to get work after arriving in Louis, but no one wanted to employ a boy who knew nothing of the city." Chief of Police Kiely has notified Morris of the boy's arrest, and will hold the youth at the Four Courts until he is heard from.

HOUSE PASSES KINNEY'S BILL Provides Penalty for Wearing High

Hats in Theaters. The House of Delegates last night passed Mr. Kinney's "high-hat bill." Mr. Fontana's bill providing for a semimenthly pay day for city employes was also passed by the

Mr. Kinney's original bill stated that no woman shall wear, while in the theater any hat which obstructs the view of persons who may be seated behind her and among other things provided that any woman violating the ordinance should deposit with the polleeman making the ar-rest $3 to insure her appearance in the Police Court to answer to the charge.

MAY GIVE $26,000,000 MORE.

University Likely to Get Another Gift From Rockefeller. Chicago, Jan. 21.-The Record-Herald tomorrow will say: It is rumored in faculty circles at the It is rumored in faculty circles at the University of Chicago that John D. Rocksfeller is contemplating a gift of $55,00.00 in order to see the complete development of the university according to President Harper's plans and under his direction within the next few years. According to the rumor, Mr. Rockefeller wrote to Doctor Harper and asked: "What is required for the completion of the university?"

Doctor Harper replied: "Trusty in the lions and some hundred thousand solutions."